GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

National Panhellenic Council

The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated (NPHC) is currently composed of nine International Greek Letter Fraternities and Sororities: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., and Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc.. NPHC promotes programming and initiatives through various activities and functions.

On May 10, 1930, on the campus of Howard University, in Washington D.C., the National Pan-Hellenic Council was formed as a permanent organization with the following charter members: Omega Psi Phi and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternities, and Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta and Zeta Phi Beta Sororities. In 1931, Alpha Phi Alpha and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternities joined the Council. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority joined in 1937 and Iota Phi Theta Fraternity completed the list of member organizations in 1997.

The stated purpose and mission of the organization in 1930 was "Unanimity of thought and action as far as possible in the conduct of Greek letter collegiate fraternities and sororities, and to consider problems of mutual interest to its member organizations." Early in 1937, the organization was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and became known as "The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated."

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was organized on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. in 1908 making it the first Greek Letter organization established by women of color. The purpose of Alpha Kappa Alpha is to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women and to be of service to all mankind. The esteemed ladies of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. are still upholding their purpose, striving for unity and excelling academically for 98 plus years.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Kappa Alpha Psi

Fraternity, Inc.
Epsilon Mu Chapter

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. was founded on the campus of Indiana University on January 5, 1911. Originally chartered and incorporated Kappa Alpha Nu on April 15, 1911, the name was officially changed to Kappa Alpha Psi on April 15, 1915.

The Fraternity is predominantly African American whose fundamental purpose is achievement. Kappa Alpha Psi seeks to train its membership, particularly undergraduates for leadership roles in their respective communities and the attainment of a high degree of excellence in their academic pursuits.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Phi Alpha

Fraternity, Inc.
Delta Psi Chapter

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated was founded on December 4, 1906 on the campus of Cornell University in Ithaca, New York. As the first Greek letter organization for African Americans, the fraternity was a way for black students to maintain closer contact with each other, to support each other, and to be a shining example to fellow man. Though time has passed the aims of the fraternity – Manly Deeds, Scholarship, and Love for All Mankind – remain the same and to this day the men of Black and Ole Gold continue to be a living and driving force in the community and on the campus of Florida Memorial University.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Delta Sigma Theta

Sorority, Inc.
Zeta Tau Chapter

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was founded on January 13, 1913 by 22 women at Howard University in Washington D.C. Their purpose is to utilize the collective strength of college women to promote academic excellence, community service and cultural enrichment. The founders envisioned an organization that would permit them to use their collective strengths to promote a high level of scholarship, and provide assistance to those less fortunate.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Phi Beta Sigma

Fraternity, Inc.
Beta Pi Chapter

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington D. C. on January 9, 1914 by three young Black male students. The founders Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and Honorable Charles I. Brown wanted to organize a Greek-letter fraternity that would truly exemplify the high ideals of brotherhood, scholarship and service. The founders deeply wished to create an organization that viewed itself as "a part of" the general community. They believe that each potential member should be judged on his own merits rather than his family background of affluence, without regard of race, nationality, color, skin tone, or texture of hair. They wanted their fraternity to exist as apart of an even greater brotherhood-sisterhood which would be devoted to the "inclusive we" rather than the "exclusive we."

"Rebuilding bridges, to bridge the gap of brotherhood, scholarship, and service."

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Zeta Phi Beta

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.
Est. January 16, 1920
Iota Alpha Chapter

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded on the simple belief that sorority elitism and socializing should not overshadow the real mission for progressive organization to address societal mores, ills, prejudices, poverty, and health concerns of the day. Zeta began as an idea conceived by five coeds at Howard University in Washington D.C. the most Honorable Arizona Cleaver, Myrtle Tyler, Viola Tyler, Fannie Pettie, and Pearl Neal, also known as our five pearls, dared to depart from the traditional coalitions for Black women and sought to establish a new organization predicated on the percepts of Scholarship, Service, Sisterly Love, and Finer Womanhood. It was the ideal of the Founders that the Sorority would reach college women in all parts of the country who were sorority minded and desired to follow the founding principles of the organization. Since its inception, the sorority has chronicled a number of Firsts. Zeta Phi Beta was the first Greek-letter organization to charter a chapter in Africa (1948); to form adult and youth auxiliary groups; to centralize its operations in a national headquarters; and to be constitutionally bound sorority to a fraternity, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Over the years since the sorority's inception, Zeta Phi Beta has chartered hundreds of chapters and initiated thousands of women around the world. On April 2, 1944, Iota Alpha, the Florida Memorial chapter, was one of the hundreds. The members of Iota Alpha strive to continue the path lay before us by upholding our principles and shining a torch for elite few of the future.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

Sigma Gamma Rho

Sorority, Inc.
Gamma Xi Chapter

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Incorporated was founded on November 12, 1922 by seven young educators at Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana. By creating a sorority during time of racial, social, and economic unrest, these seven women laid the foundation for Sigma upon which they established love, sisterly understanding, and being in service to the community. Public service, leadership development, and education of youth are hallmark of the organization's program and activities. Sigma Gamma Rho addresses concerns that impact society educationally, civically, and economically.

Iota Phi Theta

Fraternity, Inc.

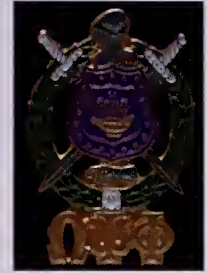

On September 19, 1963, at Morgan State College (now Morgan State University), 12 undergraduate men, Charles Briscoe, Charles Brown, Frank Coakley, Elias Dorsey Jr.; Charles Gregory, Albert Hicks, Louis Hudnell, Webster Lewis, John Slade, Lonnie Spruill, Michael Williams, and Baron Willis formed what is now fifth largest predominately African American Fraternity in the United States: Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc. Our founders were unique because they were non-traditional students and 3-5 years older the average college student. Some were married, some were veterans, and some even held full-time jobs while attending college to earn a degree. This led to the concept of a "fraternity" that was vision ...a vision of Iota Phi Theta. The motto of the fraternity is "Building on a Tradition, Not Resting on One."

On November 17, 1911, three Howard University undergraduate students, with the assistance of their faculty adviser, gave birth to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. This event occurred in the office of Biology Professor Ernest E. Just, the faculty adviser, in the Science Hall (now known as Thirkield Hall). The three liberal arts students were Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper and Frank Coleman.

From the initials of the Greek phrase meaning "friendship is essential to the soul," the name Omega Psi Phi was derived. The phrase was selected as the motto. Manhood, scholarship, perseverance and uplift were adopted as cardinal principles.

Fall Convocation Charge Students to Maximum the Gift of a College Education

by Sharhonda Ford, Director of Student Publications

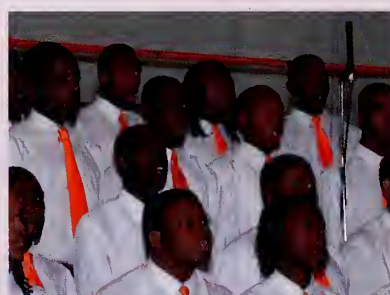

On Thursday, September 7, 2006 Florida Memorial University held their annual Fall Convocation.

Administrators, faculty, staff and students packed the A. Chester Robinson Athletic Center in honor of the Class of 2010.

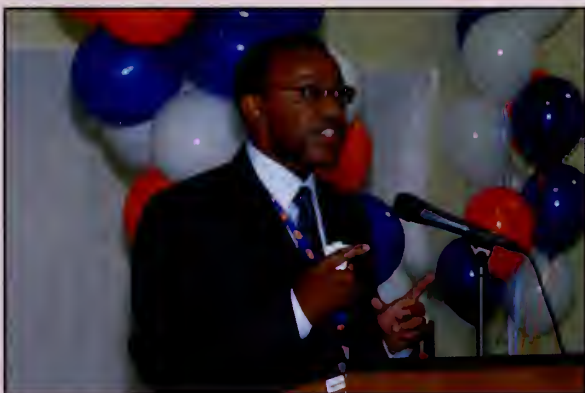

The purpose for the Fall Convocation is to officially welcome the freshmen class and new students to Florida Memorial University. In addition, the intent of the ceremony is to challenge the new students and to charge them with new responsibilities to grow, develop and expand their experiences through interactions with administrators, faculty, and staff in the university community. President Dr. Karl S. Wright encouraged students to grab opportunities and take them. Set high expectations; demand nothing but excellences from yourself and your friends. "Maximize the gift of a college education, it will be your best investment," said Wright.

Wright inspired students to become active learners, improve and expand their educational experience. "High school is over. College has no room service, freedom comes with responsibilities and choices come with consequences," said Wright.

Moreover, Wright challenged administrators, faculty and staff to embrace students, develop a strong family bond and deliver superior customer service to our students.

HIGH HOPES FELT AT THE 2006 STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

By Tiffanie Salone
Entertainment Editor

Themed "Empowering the Future Leaders of the 21st Century," Florida Memorial University's 2006 Student Leadership Conference ended on a successful note thanks to the hard work by the Student Government Association and other school officials. The conference took place over the course of two days, Friday October 6th and Saturday October 7th. Students in professional attire from various organizations attended the conference in great numbers with hopes of gaining knowledge on what it takes to be an efficient leader in their clubs and/or organizations as well as how to improve the leadership skills that they currently possess.

Officers and members acting as representatives alike, sat through enriching workshops dealing with financial awareness, time management, the importance of etiquette and the like. Junior, Chardeline Vigne majoring in Criminal Justice who is also the President of Women of Character Alpha Chapter replied "I enjoyed the budgeting workshop with Dr. Phillips, because instead of just lecturing, he talked about real-life money management." when asked which workshop she enjoyed the most and why.

Special guests included the former SGA President Kito Bess and Miss Florida Memorial of 2001 Khalia Gray whom aided in hosting some of the event's workshops. Other leaders whom held workshops were a consultant from Devry University, David Cole, President and CEO of CMA Enterprise Incorporated, Gail Birks and professional leaders of Florida Memorial University. Following the festivities, they received awards and recognition for their participation in the Conference.

LUNCH WITH A SENATOR

By Tiffanie Salone
Entertainment Editor

On the second day of the conference, Florida Memorial University had the privilege of welcoming Florida State Senator, Frederica S. Wilson to the luncheon in the university's banquet hall. SGA President, Rodney Howard introduced her by informing the room of her great achievements and of her plans for positive change in the African American Communities of Florida. Wilson not only holds an honorary doctorate degree from Florida Memorial University, but she used to train professionals on campus before the college's accreditation and when it was a smaller institution with limited worldwide recognition. To express her feelings about the university's efforts for expansion and improvement, she admitted "I am pleased with the progress of this University. I had a lot of things that I needed to do today, but I am here because I am proud of how far Florida Memorial has come" as she addressed the audience.

As her speech progressed, Wilson touched on topics concerning the importance of Black students voting, achieving goals and making dreams reality by striving for them as well as problems with promiscuity affecting the Black universities. As an advocate for uplifting African American males, Wilson is putting forth great efforts to ensure that they receive the proper job training and that the dismantling of the Black family doesn't occur in the future. Asking the students and future leaders to "Continue to motivate peers to want and learn to grow," the Senator left the room in awe of her words of encouragement. Receiving a standing ovation, she ended her visit by eating amongst the conference's attendees, taking pictures with students and advisors, and mingling with the crowd.

The Honorable Julio Robaina, Mayor for the City of Hialeah, addressed 200 special guests during "Abriendo Puertas / Opening Doors," the university's Hispanic Heritage Celebration and Reception, last Tuesday, October 31, 2006 at 1:00 PM in the Lou Rawls Center for the Performing Arts on campus (15800 NW 42nd Avenue, Miami Gardens, FL 33054). In honor of National Hispanic Heritage Month, which is recognized annually between September 15th and October 15th, the newly-elected Mayor led the audience in saluting notable Hispanic leaders and entities that are steadfastly committed to performing community service and developing strong multicultural, professional, and personal ties throughout South Florida. The corporate and individual honorees receiving special recognition during the course of the program were the following:

Family Business of the Year -El Dorado Furniture, The Capo Family
Business Person of the Year - Mr. Jose Concepcion - Ocean Bank
Educator of the Year - Mrs. Martha Montiel - Principal, Hialeah Middle School
Community Service Awards - TELEMUNDO/Channel 51 News Department
Mr. Ambrosio Hernandez
Mrs. Maria Montoya
Mr. John Morales
WQBA/1140 a.m. Univision - Ms. Teresa Montoya
The Florida Marlins - Mr. Juan Martinez
South Florida Hispanic Chamber of Commerce-Ms. Liliam Lopez

Dr. Karl S. Wright, President of Florida Memorial University, was eager to host this event as a means of promoting cultural diversity, awareness, and appreciation across campus. "This event was held to pay homage to the Hispanic community and the contributions made to foster diversity, build partnerships, and promote education among all cultures in South Florida" stated Dr. Wright. When asked to comment on the outstanding individuals and corporations receiving awards during the program, he said, "We were pleased to host an event paying tribute to a Hispanic community that has enriched the landscape of South Florida forever. Further, we look forward to enhancing our familial bonds with these remarkable leaders," he added.

Following the program, popular "spin-doctors" DJ Le Spam & the Le Spam All-Stars provided musical entertainment during a Latin-inspired reception at 2:30 PM in the breezeway of the Lou Rawls Center where complimentary refreshments and beverages were served to all guests in attendance.

TOP NEWS STORIES 2006

The headlines in 2006 were marked by death, scandal and politics: 12 die in Sago Mine disaster. Former Enron executives guilty. Death sentence for Saddam Hussein. Iraq insurgent al-Zarqawi killed. War in Lebanon. Nuclear saber-rattling in Iran, North Korea. "Crocodile Hunter" killed. Former Beatie in divorce battle. Trans-Atlantic terror plot foiled. Ex-Russian spy poisoned. Mega church preacher in sex scandal. Democrats win midterms.

Steve Irwin, the enthusiastic "Crocodile Hunter" who enthralled audiences around the world with his wildlife adventures, was killed by a stingray barb that pierced his chest while he was shooting a TV program on the Great Barrier Reef off the northeast coast of Australia.

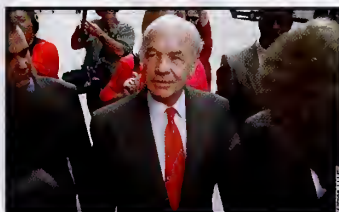

Immigration protests

Hundreds of thousands of protesters turned out in more than 140 cities in at least 39 states, demanding that the nation's estimated 11 million to 12 million undocumented immigrants get a chance to live the American dream. Congress approved a 700-mile fence along one-third of the U.S.-Mexico border, which Bush signed into law 12 days before the election.

Enron trial May 25

After four years of investigations, 16 weeks of testimony and six days of jury deliberations, Enron former Chief Executive Jeffrey Skilling and founder Kenneth Lay were found guilty of conspiracy and fraud. The former executives were convicted of misleading the public about the financial health of Enron, whose 2001 collapse symbolized a wave of corporate fraud that swept the country. Lay, 64, died of coronary disease on July 5 while awaiting sentencing.

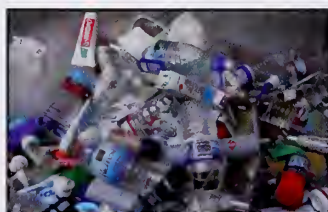

Israel-Hezbollah war July 12

Israel launched a series of bombing raids into Lebanon after Hezbollah forces crossed into Israel, killing three soldiers and abducting two more, a move the Israeli prime minister called an "act of war."

Trans-Atlantic plot foiled August 10

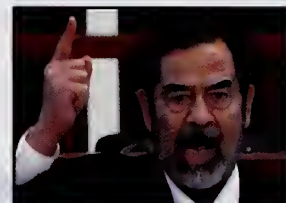

Terrorists were in the "final stages" of a plot to simultaneously blow up as many as 10 jets leaving Britain for the United States when British and Pakistani authorities teamed up to thwart the attacks, officials said. It was believed the plotters planned to mix a sports drink with a gel-like substance to make a potent explosive that could be ignited with an MP3 player or cell phone.

Saddam Hussein verdict November 5

Former Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein and two other defendants were sentenced to death by hanging for a brutal 1982 crackdown in the Shiite town of Dujail. Hussein was executed December 30 and was buried the next day in the same cemetery as his sons, who were killed in a 2003 firefight with U.S. forces.

Democrats win midterms November 7

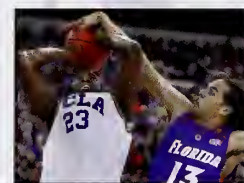

Democrats took control of both the House of Representatives and the Senate for the first time in a dozen years in the 2006 U.S. midterm elections, and President Bush and top Democrats quickly promised to get along despite a rancorous campaign.
